Year 3 Reading Activities

Create an acrostic poem about one of your characters. Here is an example about Julie Joyful in the mornings, Unbelievably kind to all, Lovely to be around Incredibly funny, Exceptionally hard working.	Draw a new front cover for a book you have. 	Write a character profile from someone from your favourite books. Remember to include; what they look like, where they live, what their hobbies are. 	Read a book by an author you have never read before. 	Write a book review for a book you have read recently.
Choose a book that was one of your favourite books from last year. Do you still love it? Why/Why not? 	Read a recipe and then have a go at making it or writing your own one. 	Do you have a favourite place to read? Why is it your favourite? Find someone different to read today and make it comfortable and cosy. 	Create a Wordsearch based on important words related to a nonfiction book. 	Compare two characters in your book or from separate books. How are they similar, how are they different?
Pick a character from a story, draw a picture of them and create a 'found' poster for them. You will need to include what they look like, where they were found and a description of them 	Create a fact file about one of the characters in your book. Remember to describe their appearance, where they live, their hobbies etc. 	Build your own dictionary! Start writing a list of any words you don't know the meaning of as you read and create your own dictionary! 	Write an alternative ending for a book you have read recently. 	Choose your favourite page or part of your book, become and illustrator! Recreate this page using images and write a short description of what happened.
