Dear Sue

I am writing to congratulate you on behalf of all in Children Schools and Families on your recent OFSTED inspection.

The report clearly identifies the school's many strengths including high standards of behaviour, good and outstanding teaching and the very strong contribution to successful learning of your support staff.

Leaders at all levels, including the governing body have clear view of strengths and areas for development and your existing curriculum enriches learning.

The school has moved forward well under your leadership and with the support of all staff and governors.

Please pass on my congratulations and thanks to all.

Yours sincerely

Helen McMullen
Director (Interim)
