

- 1) Look at the front cover: make a prediction about the story by using the title and the images on the front of the book.

Predictions are of course dependent on what the reader perceives when they look at a book cover or title. If your prediction makes sense given what you see, then it is acceptable; you just need to justify it. (2 marks)

- 2) Read the blurb above. Why do you think everyone goes blind in Perfect?

Maybe there is a special condition that makes everyone go blind, or maybe there is some kind of light that causes blindness.

(1 mark)

- 3) Do you think that the place called Perfect is perfect? Explain your answer.

No, because everyone goes blind in the Perfect place and that is far from perfect. It also looks creepy and isolated. Her dad also vanished and this is distressing for any child and the opposite of perfect.
