

Planning a Haiku

Let's think about what we could write about. Haikus are often about nature, seasons or animals - but not always! What inspires you? Look out your window and jot down a few words in this web plan. You can draw or stick a picture of your theme in the box, then brainstorm some words or phrases about it.

