

There once was a teacher in school,
Who thought, "I am nobody's fool."
She searched lovely Twinkl,
For resources to sprinkle,
And now her classroom looks so cool!

Limerick Examples

Limericks are light-hearted, funny poems with several common features. Compare these two limericks.

There once was a young man from Ealing,
Who always would hang from the ceiling.
He couldn't wear a hat,
But could hang like a bat,
And said, "What a wonderful feeling!"

There was an old Martian named Zed
With blue spots all over his head.
He sent out a lot
Of di-di-dash-dot-dot
But nobody knows what he said!

Limerick Features

What did you notice?

The second line gives more details about the subject.

First lines begin with typical phrases, like this one.

There once was a young man from Ealing,

Who always would hang from the ceiling.

He couldn't wear a hat,

But could hang like a bat,

And said, "What a wonderful feeling!"

Lines 3 and 4 give us some action about the subject.

The last line is the punchline, usually the consequences of lines 3 and 4.

The first line sets up the subject, so it usually ends with the name of a person or place.
