

History Vocabulary

explorer – someone who travels to find new information scientist – someone who studies science astronaut — someone who is trained to go to space trader – someone who buys and sells voyage – long journey by sea or in space chronological — events in order that they happened century – one hundred years
significant – someone or something important

Explorers

Map

compass

north

east

south

west

Geography Vocabulary

locate – discover the exact place continent – a landmass usually made up of ocean – a very large expanse of sea Earth – the planet we live on globe – the Earth, an object that is a sphere mountain – a very large hill, higher than 300m
atlas – a book of maps
discovery – to find something map – something to show features of land or sea journey – travel from one place to another navigator – a person to decide the way

	Marco Polo 1254-1324 Merchant and explorer	Ibn Battuta 1304-1369 Scholar and Explorer	James Cook 1728-1779 British explorer and Cartographer (map designer)	Mary Kingsley 1862-1900 Explorer and Ethnographer (studies people)	Roald Amundsen 1872-1928 Polar Explorer	Mae Jemison 1956-present Astronaut
Who?	Marco Polo	Ibn Battuta	James Cook	Mary Kingsley	Roald Amundsen	Mae Jemison
When?	1254-1324	1304-1369	1728-1779	1862-1900	1872-1928	1956– present day
Where?	Asia	Africa, the Middle East, Asia	Antarctica, North America, Australia and New Zealand	Africa	Antarctica and The Arctic	Space

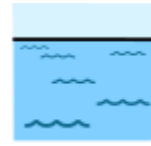

explorer

continent

scientist

ocean

astronaut

earth

trader

globe

voyage

mountain

chronological

atlas

100

century

discovery

significant

map

locate

journey

navigator